From the Spiritual Director —

— Autumn Thoughts

Summer's long days and short nights are moving toward an end as I consider these words. The plans once awaiting fulfillment have either been realized or put by for another time. And the busy Fall once again confronts us. Have we taken time during this comfortable summer to re-connect with God? Has God been on our agenda, in our schedules? For many, perhaps the vast majority of us, the answers might be combined into "Well . . . some times."

If I understand the Sermon on the Mount, which Jesus preached, God does not just want us "Well . . . some times," but all the times of our lives, the good and the not-so-good, the exciting and the dull times. Think of that! God Wants US because God loves us—loves us enough to send Jesus to show us how to be with God in all times—by following Jesus. And Jesus both tells and shows us what that means—by his words and sermons and parables, and by his ministry of caring to all in need. The New Covenant Jesus invites us into is a covenant of love and service. As we move through the doorway of another season, let us move more fully into covenant with our God!

Grace, Mercy and Peace,

JJ Bodine

Jesus helped his disciples locate a net-breaking catch of fish, then called them to bring all peoples into God's compassionate arms. Are we fishing on 'dry land' or among people longing for a life-changing encounter with God?
